

christchurch-rental-market-analysis

An academic team project analyzing the Christchurch rental market using data science, statistical analysis, and geospatial techniques to identify rental trends, affordability patterns, and housing market insights.